ROCK SPLITTING POLITICS

What is the 70 year itch in American politics? What does the battle of Gettysburg have in common with today's rebellion against the U.S. Constitution? How does the 21st century Tea Party compare with the original tea party of 1773? What does ex-Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi have in common with Admiral Ackbar from Star Wars? What is a Humpty-Dumpty politician? Open this book for these insights and more from Doc Holliday, a common sense specialist!

"The Tea Party has invigorated American politics, and Doc Holliday is a conservative voice on the front lines of the movement."
— U.S. Senator Roger Wicker (R-Miss.)

"Doc Holliday goes beyond the status quo and politics as usual. Many things of value transcend party politics, and Doc is bold enough to illuminate them."
— Dr. Alveda C. King, Niece of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

"America is going through another critical period in our history. Doc Holliday helps us understand the difficult circumstances we're in, but reminds us that our hope rests with 'We the people.'"
— Former U.S. Congressman Bob Beauprez (R-CO)

Dr. Ed Holliday is an author, speaker and radio host. He is a featured speaker at Tea Party events throughout the country. His weekly radio program, "Doc Holliday's Tea Party" can be heard online by visiting teaparty.ms or webtalkradio.net. Dr. Holliday is a dentist and lives in Tupelo, MS.
